A BUNCH OF RAPS AT THE BOXERS.

POOR Johnny Dunn is certainly a mark of abuse for all stages of the hammer. Even the name 'Kid McCoy' has found occasion to say things to raise the ire of the sensitive Johnny.

JIM CORBETT

Shortly after his fight with Fitz and following the Chinese trouble Ed was allowed to remark that he wished Fitz had knocked him right through to China.

Joe Walcott as a boniface is said to be somewhat of a failure. Joe has other hard luck. His match with the champion, a savate fighter of France has been called off.

Owen Ziegler, who since the Summer began, has been buried pugilistically in a Bath Beach bathing resort business.

Jeff Thorne, the English middle-weight who came over here heralded as a champion, is wondering why Charley Goff won't meet him again.

Al Herford is shedding some more tears these days. He is unable to get as many fights for his colored boxer as he would like.

WINNERS AT SARATOGA.

Madden Stakes Attracts a Big Crowd to the Spa Track.

(Special to The Evening World.) SARATOGA RACE TRACK, Aug. 2.—The weather was not very bright this afternoon but one would imagine it was Autumn and those who wrapped themselves in heavy clothes in place of the summer garb...

Al Herford is shedding some more tears these days. He is unable to get as many fights for his colored boxer as he would like.

While this may be true in the case of the smaller fry it does not fit the manager of Terry McGovern, Jim Jeffries.

The Ex-Sailor, Familiar with Styles of McCoy and Corbett, Says the Kid Outclasses Jim as a Fighter and a Boxer.

Tom Sharkey ought to be content to judge the respective merits of Jim Corbett and 'Kid' McCoy, who are matched to fight on Aug. 30. He has met both men in the ring and knows their styles.

McCoy is a fighter who has two styles. He is as hard a hitter as any man in the business, perhaps having Fitzgibbon's punches are like the kick of a horse.

Corbett has but one style. That is the left-hand jab, a felt and a run. I've got a patent to beat him and his great feat and I know I could do him quick.

WINNERS AT BRIGHTON; POOR CARD AND SMALL CROWD.

Too Many Events for Two-Year-Olds and Withdrawals Mar the Sport at the Ocean Track.

There were only two real good races to be run. One was the Glen Cove Handicap for three-year-olds, and the Racing Generation Stakes for two-year-olds.

There is something wrong when stakes worth $1,000 added to a long race.
